

I've had the privilege of working with Huey at Herff Jones on Grad Events for Alabama A&M University, since 2018 for over seven (7) years, and I am thoroughly impressed with the level of professionalism, expertise, and commitment to excellence he consistently brings. His attention to detail and deep knowledge of the products and services offered by Herff Jones has truly set him apart.

This year, as we celebrate our 150th anniversary, Huey worked closely with our staff to help us create a unique cap and gown design that perfectly showcases our 150 years of tradition and excellence. His ability to understand our vision and translate it into a beautiful, meaningful design was invaluable. Whether it's custom graduation regalia, class rings, or other services, his dedication to delivering high-quality outcomes is evident in every project. The results speak for themselves. His professionalism and the quality of his work give me complete confidence in recommending his services to anyone looking for reliable and top-tier solutions" for all your graduation supplies call Huey!
